

BUILDING STRONG FAMILIES: ACCESSING SERVICES FOR THE AFRICAN COMMUNITY

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2012

5:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Adam Clayton Powell State Office Building
163 West 125th Street, 8th Floor, Manhattan

Presented by

New York County District Attorney's Office

In Collaboration with

Association des Senegalais D' Amerique (ASA)

Council of African Imams

TOPICS

-  Cultural changes and your family
-  Working with your child's school to ensure success
-  Getting Help: Calling 311 or 911
-  If you're the victim of a crime

Plus many city agencies and service providers will be available to provide help and answer questions

Translation will be provided in French

Please join us for this informative event

Light refreshments will be served

With the Support of : African4Humanity ♦ African Hope Committee ♦ African Leadership Project (ALP) ♦ Association des Maliens de New York (AMANY) ♦ Downtown Baptist Church ♦ Senegalese Catholic Association of America ♦ The Council For Young African Leaders

For additional information please contact:
New York County District Attorney's Office Community Affairs Unit
(212) 335-9082